

EVERY KNIGHT INHERITS MORE THAN A TITLE.
HE INHERITS A RESPONSIBILITY.

The Baldwin-Brown Fund exists to safeguard the future of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Virginia by strengthening the foundation that allows our work to continue. Named in honor of two extraordinary Past Grand Commanders, Sir Knights Richard Burditt Baldwin and Fitz Allen Brown, this fund reflects lives devoted to service, leadership, and steadfast faith.

This is not about prestige. It is about continuity.

Your gift is invested so that only the interest is used to support the day-to-day operations of the Grand Commandery. That means your contribution does not fade with a single year. It endures, quietly doing its work long after we are gone.

When you give to the Baldwin-Brown Fund, you are saying:

- I care about the strength of this Order.
- I care about those who will stand here after me.
- I understand that legacy is something we actively protect.

Each Baldwin-Brown Fellow is recognized with a distinctive pin, a visible reminder that stewardship is personal, intentional, and worthy of honor. More importantly, it is a reminder that the stability we enjoy today exists because others once chose to give.

This is The Legacy We Share.
